From the Pastor

Greetings Good Samaritan!

As I write this greeting to you, I am also in the process of saying goodbye to my current congregation. One that I have come to know and love. Over the past seven years I have been blessed to create bonds and be able to minister among some very special people. Saying goodbye to them has proven to be quite difficult.

On top of that, I find change difficult at times. Especially when leaving a place or people that have come to mean a lot to me and who I am comfortable with. I think we have all been there. Having to leave the familiar for something new and experiencing the mixture of emotions that comes with it.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 tells us: "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens." Another way to put it comes from the Greek philosopher Heraclitus, "the only constant in life is change."

What I have come to find though is what we fear about change the most is not the change itself, but what we might end up losing in that change. At least I know that is the case for me. So as I come into this new appointment I have decided not to focus on what I am losing, but what I am gaining. Being able to minister among people who I soon will come to know and love. To become a part of a new church family and take part in the amazing things that God is doing through all of you.

So as we all collectively go through this change together, I look forward to getting to know each one of you personally. I trust that God will be at work during this transition and beyond.

My sabbath day will be Friday, but I plan to be in the office Monday-Thursday. Feel free to stop by and say hello! I along with my wife, Sabrina, and children, Nathan and Natalie, look forward to being a part of your wonderful community.

Grace and Peace,
Ashish Singh
