From the Pastor

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."
Hebrews 13:8

Dear Church Family,

I was just reminded that this year my wife Sabrina and I will be celebrating 20 years of marriage. To be honest it seems that a lot of it is a blur. And I think that there were times that I was living on autopilot, going through the motions of trying to pay the bills, raise children and do the things a young family does. And like most marriages we experienced periods of conflict, frustration, turbulence, and hardship. But if I really take time to think back, it becomes very clear to me that we are better off together than if we had never met and that God has been active in and through us as a couple.

This month, we rejoice together as we celebrate 65 years of God's faithfulness to Good Samaritan. From humble beginnings to the community we are today, we give thanks to the Lord who has sustained and guided us every step of the way. I truly believe that the world is a better place because Good Samaritan exists. Because this faithful group of people have stuck together God has used that to transform lives.

Hebrews 13:8 reminds us that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." As we reflect on the past, we see God's unchanging grace at work in every season—through times of growth, moments of trial, and countless blessings in between. God's steadfast love has been our anchor.

As we look forward to the future, let us be inspired by our rich legacy to continue being a light in our community. May our worship, fellowship, and service continue to reflect the love of Christ and draw others to Him.

Let us continue to walk together in faith, trusting the One who never changes.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Singh
