From the Pastor

A new year always arrives with a mixture of hope and honesty. We step into January carrying dreams for what might be, but also memories of what has been. Some of us come grateful, others weary, and many with both feelings at once. The good news as we begin this year is simple and steady: God meets us exactly where we are.

Scripture reminds us, "Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness" (Lamentations 3:22–23). A new year does not erase the past, but it does remind us that God's mercy is never exhausted. Each day is an invitation to begin again, held by grace rather than pressure.

As a church, we enter this year not knowing everything that lies ahead, but trusting the One who goes before us. We do not need perfect plans or flawless resolutions. What God desires is faithfulness—faithfulness in prayer, in worship, in generosity, and in love for one another. Small acts of faith, repeated over time, can shape lives and transform communities.

This new year is also a chance to renew our commitment to being the church together. We are called to be a people who listen well, serve faithfully, forgive freely, and hope boldly. In a world that often feels divided and uncertain, the church is invited to be a living witness to God's reconciling love.

Wherever this year finds you—celebrating, grieving, searching, or simply showing up—know that you do not walk into it alone. God is already present in every month, every challenge, and every joy to come. May this year be marked not by fear of the unknown, but by trust in the God who makes all things new.

Let us step forward together, confident that the same God who has been faithful in the past will continue to lead us in the year ahead.
Happy New Year!
Pastor Singh
